Notes from CILogon conference call on 11 Nov 2010 relevant to CILogon branded page for DataONE:

DataONE branded CILogon logon page
* Feasibility?
- Yes, it is doable
- DataONE icon and color scheme to begin with
- CSS possible, but at a later date
- Dynamic using query parameter
- Can set cookies
- Will the URL be able to retain the "dataone.org" domain name in anyway?

- Uptime/availability (SLA) agreements?

  - Single location currently at UIUC
  - Upcoming host location TBD (depending on SLA agreements/needs)
  - Potential hosting by DataONE for failover/stability
  - DataONE needs to provide parameters for an SLA
  - Current agreements by other CI projects tend to be more loose and without binding SLAs
  - CILogon would like to step up the commitment for SLA type of agreements

- Long-term viability?

  - Grant thru August 2012
  - Goal to prove efficacy of the project
  - Potential support through either InCommon or Internet2

- Time Frame

    - Next 3 months or sooner
    - Contact Jim Basney

Response from Jim Basney:

> Thanks Mark. Your timing is good. We've got some prototype code for this > almost ready for experimentation. We'll follow-up with you on it soon.

#7 - 2010-12-13 15:40 - Mark Servilla

- % Done changed from 30 to 60

Jim Basney (CILogon) reported on Friday 10 Dec of a prototype for the DataONE branded CILogon page:

> Mark,
>
> We've just released "CILogon Service 2.0":
>
> http://www.cilogon.org/news/cilogonservice20
> This new version of the CILogon Service includes our initial support for > branding (or "skinning"). Please take a look at
>
> https://cilogon.org/?skin=DataONE
> and give us your comments. I'm CCing Terry Fleury (our lead developer) > who can make tweaks to the skin for us and comment on what is or isn't > possible to change at this point.

Waiting for feedback from the CCIT on acceptance or request for changes of the current CILogon branded site (https://cilogon.org/?skin=DataONE).
We should set this as an agenda item for the 5 January 2011 CCIT call.

Impacts of changes to the construction of the certificate may impact the interface design of the branded site; final decisions should be made regarding the need for CILogon on to add/subtract specific content from the certificate before closing this ticket?
