Description

The d1_libclient_java tests in D1ClientUnitTest, D1RestClientEchoTest, and RestClientEchoTest have dependencies upon external network resources. We need to modify tests so that we can inject a HttpClient interface mock implementation that mimics the echo service on dev-testing and the nodeList on cn-dev rather than, as we are currently doing, testing the apache default HttpClient implementation that is a dependency of these classes.

We should also move the current tests into integration testing.
