Description CitSci.org provides a toolset, including the hosting of data, for citizen science (PPSR -- public participation in science and research) projects. CitSci.org currently hosts data from approximately 50 such projects. Greg Newman (Colorado State University) is the lead on CitSci.org and is a member of the PPSR working group. Handling of streaming (mutable) data is a key need.

History

#1 - 2012-11-12 14:31 - Bruce Wilson

Will revisit this in spring 2013. Likely a topic for discussion at the May 2013 PPSR working group meeting, which I plan on attending.

#2 - 2013-01-30 20:57 - John Cobb

- Subject changed from Deploy the CitSci.org MN to CitSci.org MN

- Start date deleted (2012-09-20)

#3 - 2013-03-11 13:20 - Bruce Wilson

BEW will not be able to attend the spring PPSR meeting (due to travel the following two weeks). No particular progress on this, but I will contact Greg Newman this week and see where things are.
