Description
from the year 5 priorities spreadsheet (https://goo.gl/CdX51e): "Guides for client developers providing an overview of D1 and libclient"
The goal is to support usage of d1_common and d1_libclient in both python and java. Ultimate detail is api documentation (javadocs, etc.) released with the products, so we need to concentrate on mid-level practicalities and general usage.
see stories 3677, 953, 1001
a general breakdown: 1. download and install 2. point out javadocs, etc. 3. workflow-oriented usage: 4. implementing certificates 5. functional areas (type-marshalling, URL encoding/decoding) (see http://mule1.dataone.org/OperationDocs/DataONE-Java-Client-Library-HowTo.html)
