Description

from the year 5 priorities spreadsheet (<https://goo.gl/CdX51e>): "Guides for client developers providing an overview of D1 and libclient"

The goal is to support usage of d1_common and d1_libclient in both python and java.

Ultimate detail is api documentation (javadocs, etc.) released with the products, so we need to concentrate on mid-level practicalities and general usage.

see stories 3677, 953, 1001

a general breakdown:

1. download and install
2. point out javadocs, etc.
3. workflow-oriented usage:
4. implementing certificates
5. functional areas (type-marshalling, URL encoding/decoding)
