Description
Typically the API client key and secret are given to individual orcid account holders, but we are planning to register a DataONE orcid to use the API for user authentication. Dave or Matt should do this as they have access to a dataone admin email address.

I created a new ORCID for DataONE, which is tied to the d1.sysadm@gmail.com email address for DataONE. The ORCID is:

<http://orcid.org/0000-0003-4857-9050>
