Description

Establish contact and build relationship with a potential new member node. Determine if DataONE and the repository are a good fit for one another and if the repository generally meets the requirements of DataONE member nodes.

This story is complete when a determination is made to either proceed with a new deployment, or that joining DataONE is not an option for the repository at this time.

Subtasks:

Task # 8728: Initial Communications (NCAR)	In Progress
Task # 8729: Requirements Analysis	New
Task # 8730: Plan the Implementation (NCAR)	New
